History of Crystal Run Village Foundation

"Supporting the services for the integration and empowerment of people with disabilities."

Since 1989, Crystal Run Village Foundation has provided quality of life support to persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities throughout the Hudson Valley and beyond. We focus philanthropic dollars on a person-centered practice that allows the individuals we serve to lead self-directed lives. "New Directions...New Lives" is the root of our person-centered initiative to foster independence, maximize participation in the community, and allow individuals to lead self-directed lives.

Contributions to the Foundation are used in the following ways:

- To help maintain CRVI's facilities and residences.
- To support recreational opportunities for our residents.
- To assist in supporting both the vocational and avocational interests of residents.
- To provide material support for life-long learning programs.
- To support educational field trips and excursions.
- To provide scholarships to help direct service providers improve their skills.
- To provide ongoing support for staff development.

CRVI's Mission

Crystal Run Village, Inc. offers the means to the fullest enjoyment of a citizen's privileges and responsibilities. Crystal Run Village provides only those supports and trainings that are consistent with fostering growth, developing independence and maximizing participation in our society.

CRVI's Values

The leaders of Crystal Run Village, Inc. commit to building a community that:

- Values integrity, trustworthiness and honesty
- Strives for excellence in all that we do
- Promotes the dignity and participation of every person
- Supports individual development, personal achievement, and life-long learning
- Fosters innovation and creativity
- Rewards loyalty, teamwork and perseverance
